Spanish bestseller crime writer Dolores Redondo to visit Melbourne Writer’s Festival and ANU

Humanities Research Centre Seminar
Tuesday 25 August 2015, 4.00 – 5.30pm
HRC Conference Room, A.D Hope Building #14, ANU

Speaker  Dolores Redondo
Translators Lilit Thwaites and Consuelo Martínez

Join us for a book presentation and Q&A with the author who is taking Europe by storm.
A public event in English from the Reading Across Borders public lecture series.
Lilit Thwaites (translator) will lead the discussion with Dolores, and Consuelo Martínez will interpret for the author. To be followed by Q & A.

About The Invisible Guardian
The naked body of a teenage girl is found on the banks of the River Baztán. Less than 24 hours after this discovery, a link is made to the murder of another girl the month before. Is this the work of a ritualistic killer or of the Invisible Guardian, the Basajaun, a creature of Basque mythology?

About the Author
Dolores Redondo (Donostia-San Sebastián, 1969) studied Law and Culinary Arts and worked in business for a few years before turning to writing. The Baztan Trilogy, the gripping crime series set in the Basque Pyrenees of which The Invisible Guardian is the first installment, has sold over 600,000 copies in Spain and been translated into 28 languages. Film rights to the trilogy have been bought by NadCon Fims (Millenium, Vallander).

About the translators
Lilit Thwaites is a literary translator and Research Associate at La Trobe University. She is the winner of the 2015 NSW Premier’s Literary Prize – Multicultural NSW Early Career Translator. Consuelo Martínez is a literary and TV translator and Lecturer of Spanish Studies at ANU.

The author’s website in English: http://www.doloresredondomeira.com/eng-index.html

Presented by
School of Literature, Languages and Linguistics
ANU College of Arts & Social Sciences

Enquiries
Dr Consuelo Martínez Reyes
+61 2 6125 4677
César Espada Sánchez
+61 2 6202-8919; cesar.espada@maec.es